Another nice day with a high of 66. Kiddo, the match winner, had the only clean match.

An interesting day for the married folks as the ladies kicked their spouses butts. Must have made some interesting drives home.

Two+ inches of rain the prior night had caused flooding in the parking lot. The Bad Norseman unplugged the culvert and cleared the mess. The shooting bay was completely dry.

We got lazy and used three targets for all stages except for the last stage.

I believe that we discovered the ideal stage that's both fast and basically P free. Will do it regularly.

Come out next month and try it.

Next match Tuesday, May 19, same time and place.
