May 16 - May 17, 2008

Learn the Responsibilities of Defensive Handgun and How to Develop a Personal Protection Strategy for the Home!

The Monocacy Pistol Club is hosting a new class on Personal Protection Inside the Home. The class will be offered beginning Friday evening May 16th and all day Saturday May 17th. This advanced class is taught by NRA Certified Instructors, is open to the public, and students will receive an NRA certificate upon successful completion.

The classroom portion will be held at the Keller Williams Real Estate Office, 7450B New Technology Way in Frederick on Friday, May 16th from 7-10 PM, and additional lecture and range exercises will be held at the Monocacy Pistol Club on Saturday, May 17th starting at 8AM. Students will learn techniques and strategies to deter burglars, home invaders and other criminals, incorporating a handgun into their personal protection strategy, and the legal aspects of the use of a handgun for self protection. The range exercise portion lasts around 4 hours and concentrates on shooting positions, aiming and firing techniques, use of cover and concealment, and methods of clearing various types of malfunctions.

Students must have passed a basic handgun course or demonstrate safe firearm handling skills to the instructor prior to taking the course.

Students will need: 1) a suitable semi-automatic handgun or revolver, 2) two (2) extra magazines or speed loaders, 3) approximately 100 rounds of factory loaded ammunition, in factory boxes, and 4) paper and pen for taking notes.

No ammunition is allowed in the classroom and open or concealed holster carry is will not be allowed on Keller Williams property. The MPC requires that all firearms be stored unloaded in either a closed case or a pistol bag while on the range and not in use. This is a fun class with lots of range time. The cost for attending this class is $100.00 and must be paid in advance along with submittal of the enrollment form. Lunch will be provided on Saturday – so bring your own sodas if you wish, water will be provided. To ensure a safe learning experience on the range, the number of students is being limited at 12. We anticipate the class filling up quickly, so call Bob Loesch at 301-831-9143 or email bob@shootingventures.com to reserve your slot!
